TITH such a starter for the week there will be many other de-affairs for the afternoon and evenings with the usual round of for events which mean so much to in the late summer or the Indian days. The last of the many special events in honor of Miss Anna will be an elaborate tea to given tomorrow afternoon by Mrs.
 A. Quigley at her home on East Temple street, a dinner for the society to be given tomorrow even-in the room at the Alta club on Tuesday evening, at which Frances Cowan will entertain the people of the bridal party following the usual church rehearsal. On afternoon Mrs. C. H. Thompson will be the hostess at a bridge tea at her home on M street.
 Colonel and Mrs. Edwin E. Holmes will entertain Thursday evening at a dinner for Colonel and Mrs. James A.
 E. Thursday afternoon Mrs. C. E. will give a bridge tea at her home and again on Friday evening Mr.
 S. Travers will entertain at an on a bridge party. On Thursday afternoon also Mrs. Claud S. Williams and Mrs. Charles Edgar Cotton will give first two bridge teas, the second to be given Friday afternoon, both at the same home in the Sampson apartment. Miss Anna McCormick has also given invitations for a bridge tea to be given on Thursday afternoon at the McCormick home on Center street. Mrs.
 J. De Forrest Hammond has invited for a tea to be given next Saturday afternoon from 4 till 6 at her home on East Second South street. Mrs. Hugh Sprague has issued invitations for a luncheon to be given next Friday at the University club. Mrs. James and McNany has issued invitations for a bridge luncheon to be given at the Hotel Utah on Tuesday, October

It is properly made. A recent counterfeiter of similar name, "F. Goursaud," has sold to a lady of the nation a "beautifier" which he called "F. Goursaud's Oriental Cream." It is a cheap imitation of the real thing, and it is not the same.

"As you ladies will use them, you will be disappointed. The real thing is the Oriental Cream, as the least harmful of all the beautifiers, and it is the only one that is made in the United States, Canada and Europe."

Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes will give an elaborate reception on Wednesday, October 15, at the Amelia Palace, the first large affair for some two years in that hospitable home, since Colonel and Mrs. Holmes have spent most of the time on the coast.

MR. AND MRS. ROSCOE CHANNING, who are at the Hotel Utah, are being entertained at numerous affairs during their stay, several dinners and other evening affairs having been given in their honor in the past week. Mrs. Channing's friends have had several luncheons varying in size from a few of her old girlhood friends to more than a score. Mrs. Arthur H. S. Bird entertained a company of some twenty-five guests at a luncheon on Thursday at the Tennis club. Mrs. J. Frank Judge gave a similar affair at the Alta club on Wednesday. Mrs. Benner K. Smith had a few of the old friends in for a luncheon at her home on Tuesday, and Mrs. Union Worthington gave a luncheon for a dozen or so at her home Friday.

ONE of the most unique dinners ever given in the "wilds" to the north of us, which are really the happy hunting grounds moved onto this earth, was a little affair given last week by S. W. Eccles of New York; a stag affair, too, with all the good things of life which the name implies. The spot chosen was Island Park ranch, the picturesque summer home of the Eccles family, and the menu included all the wild game for which the region is famous, with the trimmings which go to make a perfect feast. The native trout, the wild chicken, the most delicious grouse in the world, the most perfect elk steak and even Canadian goose formed some of the appetizing bits and, of course, all the other things to season and moisten and make more delicious the viands mentioned. Mr. Eccles had

Girlish, Wrinkle-Free Skin Easy to Have

(From Pilgrim Magazine.)

Since its remarkable astringent and tonic properties became known, clever women all over the world have been using the saxolite face balm to "tone up" their faces, remove wrinkles and draw flabby cheeks and necks back to normal. After using the solution, the face immediately feels much firmer. The skin tightens and becomes more elastic, the pores are closed and sagging. The formula is: Powdered saxolite 1 oz., dissolved in water.

Another wonderful facial beautifier and rejuvenator that has become quite a rage in Europe is the saxolite face cream. It is a sterilized wax. Druggists report a great demand. The wax literally absorbs a yellow, blotchy or withered complexion, leaving the fresh, vigorous, healthy-looking young skin underneath a chance to "breathe" and to show itself. Applying the cream twice a day, cold cream, washing it off mornings, will completely renovate a poor complexion in a week or ten days. One ounce usually is sufficient.

ley and Martins Carn. And to further make the "stag" more pleasant, Mrs. Eccles, Miss Mildred Eccles, Miss Grace Bennett and Miss O'Connell of New York were on hand to be the hostesses for the affair. The menu cards were works of art, showing a photograph of the host as he really looks when in his outing clothes and taking his greatest comfort besides a string of game. The photograph was tinted in water colors showing even the feathers on the wild fowl in their most exquisite coloring, the whole making a souvenir worthy of the occasion.

THE dinner dance at Pincetree Inn, which was postponed for a fortnight, will be given Thursday evening. The affair promises to be a most popular one, as it is under the patronage of a number of the young society matrons, including Mrs. J. E. Jennings, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. Lester Fred, Mrs. Joseph Nibley, Mrs. J. H. Fredericksen, Mrs. Ashby D. Cleveland, Mrs. O. J. Salisbury and others. The company will leave town at 6 o'clock and there will be a special train down following the dance to bring the guests who wish home, although many have made arrangements to remain over night at the Inn.

A MOST beautiful affair of yesterday afternoon was the tea at the Keyser home on East First South street at which Mrs. George D. Keyser and Miss Hay were the hostesses. The whole house was brilliantly decorated with the autumn leaves and vines, artistic sprays of the gorgeous tinted leaves decorating the place on every hand. In the dining room yellow and white snapdragons were used for the floral part, the general color scheme being in yellow and white and green. Assisting in the drawing room were Mrs. E. S. Bascom, Mrs. A. H. Boxrud and Miss Gertrude Hanson. Taking turns at the tea table were Mrs. C. E. Carter, Mrs. Paul E. Keyser, Mrs. C. P. Overfield and Miss Carrie Sappington, and assisting them in serving were Miss Bonnie Miller, the Misses Mary and Hazel Sappington and Isabel Shiffer. During the afternoon hours about two hundred friends of the hostesses called.

non and Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Donohoe, has proved a very popular place for tennis enthusiasts the past few weeks, and there is usually a crowd of young people on hand for a set with numerous parties to watch the game. While no club has been organized, many of those who play the game well are among those seen on the courts, and doubtless they will sooner or later organize a club.

ATHLETICS have claimed the attention of the fair sex for the past few weeks, tennis and golf being about evenly divided. Mrs. T. W. Bover surprised even her friends a week ago by winning her match with Miss Kate Williams, who has been the tennis champion for any number of years. In the women's handicap golf tournament, begun in earnest the first of the past week, Miss Mary Halloran, the rising young society girl in athletic circles, won in the medal play, making the lowest net score. Since then, owing to one cause and another, the plays have been slightly irregular, and yesterday's inclement weather interfered seriously with the semi-finals which were to have been played. As it now stands, Miss Lane and Mrs. Union Worthington have not yet played off for their semi-finals, but will doubtless play their match the first day possible, the winner to meet Miss Halloran, at which time Miss Dunn and Mrs. J. T. Gilmer will play the semi-finals.

THE COUNTRY CLUB presented a very gay scene last evening when the members and their friends to the number of more than a hundred enjoyed the last of the summer dinner dances, which have made the Saturday nights a pleasure through the past five months or more. The rooms were all gay with autumn leaves and flowers, and for the dinner in the early evening many parties were seen at the tables. Later a great number of young people went out to enjoy the dancing, for which extra fine music was provided. More than the usual number of the army people were present to enjoy the evening, Colonel and Mrs. James A. Irons entertaining at one dinner for a number of the new military people. Their guests were Captain and Mrs. Robert W. Mearns, Lieutenant and Mrs. Arthur Ahrends, Miss Josephine McClelland, Miss Elizabeth Cartwright, Captain A. M. Shipp and Lieutenant Lewis. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor entertained a party of military folk also, having as their guests Captain and Mrs. George H. Estes, Captain and Mrs. John De Witt, Captain and Mrs. W. B. Graham, Lieutenant and Mrs. B. P. Johnson and Lieutenant and Mrs. Henry M. Nelly. Mr. and Mrs. John C. D. Clark had as their guests Colonel Frederiek Perkins and his son, Frederiek Perkins, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Snow.

A SERIES of four dances, one each week through January, will be given at Whitney Hall beginning sometime about Hallowe'en. The cards for the series have been sent out, Mrs. William Redl, Mrs. Joseph Nibley and Mrs. Lester Freed being the originators of the plan. The series will be the most popular subscription dances attempted probably since the assembly balls of a few years ago, and they will of course be less formal and more fun. The little dancing hall chosen is one of the best adapted for informal entertaining and so far everyone included in the list has taken the matter up with the utmost enthusiasm.

MRS. R. O. MECKLENBURG was the hostess on Monday and Tuesday of the past week at delightful bridge teas at her hospitable home on East South Temple street. The first affair was given in compliment to Mrs. Walter L. Maas of Los Angeles, a guest at the home of Mrs. Noble Warrum, and the second in compliment to Miss Otisog of Chicago. The home was gorgeous with American Beauty roses for both affairs, dozens of the flowers being used for decorating the rooms. Many friends of the hostess assisted at the affairs, among them Mrs. Edward McGurrin, Mrs. P. S. Keogh, Mrs. Charles A. Quigley, Mrs. Fred Davidson, Mrs. James Ivers, Jr., Miss Louise Wey, Miss Frances McChrystal, Miss Florence Sullivan, Miss Wilma Nelson, Miss Emma Zane, Miss Margaret Collins and little Miss Margaret Godbe.

MRS. MORRIL N. FARR and her sister, Miss Rehan Spencer, entertained yesterday afternoon at a bridge party for their cousin, Miss Louise Spencer, one of the October brides, the affair having been postponed for one week. The home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Spencer on B street was the scene of the affair, and it was decorated with quantities of autumn leaves and autumn flowers. Seven tables were arranged for the players and later a delicious supper was served at the small tables. Mrs. Spencer and Miss Helen Spencer assisted.

A most interesting wedding of the week will be that of Miss Anna Rolfe Adams and Lieutenant William C. Stoll, U. S. A., which will be solemnized Wednesday evening in St. Paul's church, Rev. Ward W. Reese officiating. The wedding will be of a military nature, a number of military army friends of the young people being included in the bridal party. Following the ceremony, to which a large number of friends have been asked, there will be a wedding supper at the home of former Governor Thomas for the members of the bridal party and relatives.

An interesting announcement is that of the engagement of Miss Ramona Wilcox, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Wilcox to Joseph Cannon, the date for the wedding to be announced later. The resignation of Miss Wilcox from the U. of U., where she was just recently admitted into the department of history, came as a great surprise to her many friends. The bride-elect is prominent in educational and literary circles. Mr. Cannon is well known in political and business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Ellis announce the engagement of their daughter, Hazel, to George W. Munden of Indiana, the marriage to take place November 27.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Anderson announced the engagement of their daughter, Adelaide, to Calvin Price. The wedding ceremony will take place at the bride's home on Fifth avenue next Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith announce the engagement of their daughter, Lillian T., to Harry L. Newman, the marriage to take place next Wednesday.
